Additional Training

This winter I had the opportunity to attend a JAARS Cessna 206 Maintenance Course in Waxhaw, NC. Even though I've been maintaining Cessna 206s at Moody Aviation for over two years, there was a lot of valuable information to learn. We're always striving to learn and improve how we do things.

Otherwise, winter meant less flying and more time for longer projects, such as engine changes. We've had students involved to build experience, but we're still behind where we'd like to be at the start of a busy flying season. God has provided one more mechanic who will join our team in May provided he finishes raising support in time. Pray that God will provide for his needs quickly and provide another mechanic soon.

Family

We normally prefer that Deborah not have seizures, but recently we were very grateful that she had a seizure while spending a few nights in the epilepsy monitoring unit (EMU) in Seattle. That event made the testing much more informative than it would have been otherwise. After having tried several more medicines with unacceptable side effects, she'll receive an implant at the end of this month to prevent seizures. Pray that will prove an effective treatment.

In the meantime, Deborah enjoyed cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, and sledding this winter and is looking forward to swimming and backpacking this summer.

We joined Wycliffe Bible Translators to help ensure that everyone has access to the Bible in a language they understand best. In spite of life changes, we're still committed to that purpose.
