Some Ministry Updates

This summer I had the honor of speaking at both Cocolalla Lake Bible Camp and Shiloh Bible Camp, as well as helping out for a week at Fir Point Bible Camp. Even though I am not in camp ministry full time anymore, I still love it and am excited to be able to be a part of it. It is a thrill to be able to support the missionaries we care for in what they do. Camps are only one example of that, but I believe it is one of the most effective when it comes to sharing the Gospel.

The group of 11 & 12 year olds I got to speak to at Cocolalla Lake Bible Camp

Listen to this quote from one of the young Cabin Leader's for the week I spoke at Cocolalla: "The majority of the kids in my cabin were unsaved with almost no real understanding of the gospel. It was very hard to get them to listen during devotions or chapel and they seemed very apathetic toward the gospel. As the week went on however, I began to see them paying attention more and actually caring more. By the end of the week three of them had realized that they were sinners in need of a Savior and repented of their sins, putting their faith in Christ. One of them even asked me to wake her up the next morning at 5:30 so that she could read her Bible with me." —Hannah Klement

This is just one of the awesome examples of what God did this summer! He is amazing and it is so fun to watch Him work and to get to be a small part of His plans!

This summer and fall were both incredibly busy times for me. I was on the road a ton! In fact, between mid-June through the first week of August I was only home for 4 days—two days each on two different occasions. Some of that was family vacation, but it was still a long time to be on the road.

Things slowed only slightly after that. However, I do love being with my missionaries and caring for them or serving with them in person. It is a true blessing and joy to serve the Lord by caring for His people who are in full time service of Him.

Be Watching for Something New!

In an effort to increase the frequency of my communication I will be making some changes. Instead of sending out the traditional "newsletters" a few times a year that are full of all kinds of stories and information, I am attempting to switch to a more consistent (hopefully monthly) email communication. These notes will be shorter and just contain a couple of paragraphs and maybe a picture or two of what we are up to. We are hoping that this new format will help you all keep up with us more regularly. Be watching for these to come in your email Inbox. If you don't get our letters by email, please send me (nbath@infaith.org) a good email for you so that you can keep up with these new, more regular communications.

Bob Miles (middle) serves in Senior care homes, this occasion marked his 35th year!

Prayer&Praise

- I have a few trips still to come this winter. Pray for me as I drive over various passes and dangerous roads to get to our missionaries. This winter has brought a lot of snow to the high country. I always love the time with my missionaries, but sometimes the travel can be challenging.
- As always, please pray that we could be the mentors/caregivers/leaders/encouragers/prayer partners/counselors that our missionaries need. We want to see them all succeed in their service of the Lord and ministries of the Gospel. Pray that we would be effective.
- Please pray for several new candidates that are working toward full time service on our Region. Raising support is hard in our current society.
- Our missionaries regularly encounter sicknesses, surgeries, financial challenges, relational challenges, etc. Please pray that our people could overcome all these challenges to keep strong in spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ here in America where it is needed so greatly. Our people go to where the people are and share the love of Christ, often in places of great spiritual darkness. They need our prayers, love & encouragement.

The only way we can do what we do is through the partnership of those who support us with prayer and finances. Please consider praying and donating to our ministry of ministering to those who minister.

Thomas & Kristine Rogers do a variety of ministries with kids and young families. Here they were speaking for the Junior Camp at Camp of The Risen Son. This is the goofy tradition of having to eat with a mystery utensil that is handed to you out of a bucket.

Missionaries Larry & Vonnie Pratt speaking at Fir Point Bible Camp. Larry is on the guitar and Vonnie is manning the puppets. Not pictured are 3 missionary couples who serve together at Fir Point: Mark & Joy Miller, JJ & Tiana Pen, and Kenny & Amy Gray.
